

What is the NAMI Peer-to-Peer Education Program?

NAMI Peer-to-Peer is a free, 10-session course for adults living with mental health challenges. NAMI Peer-to-Peer provides an educational setting focused on recovery that offers respect, understanding, encouragement and hope. The NAMI Peer-to-Peer education program is:

- Free and confidential
- Held once week for two hours
- Taught by trained Peer Mentors living in recovery themselves
- A great resource for information on mental health and recovery

NAMI Brown County, the local organization of the National Alliance on Mental Illness, will offer its NAMI Peer-to-Peer Education Program beginning Monday, April 17. It will be held on Mondays at 1:00pm at 932 Cherry St., Green Bay.

Participant Perspectives

“This course has literally been a life saver. It has opened my eyes to better understanding my illness and methods of recovery I did not know about before taking NAMI Peer-to-Peer.”

“Since taking the course I have gained employment and committed to my recovery.”

“NAMI Peer-to-Peer gave me a better understanding of the mental illness I have and how to manage it.”
